STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. In or about February 2022, the Plaintiff, an African American, was placed at Defendant company by a staffing agency as a Material Handler. On or about May 23, 2022, Plaintiff began working for the Defendant permanently as a Forklift Operator. At all times, the Plaintiff was efficient and effective in her job.

11. Beginning in or about May 2022, Plaintiff was subjected to racial discrimination by her Supervisor, Jeff, and Lead, Edward Flynn.

12. Between May and June 2022, Plaintiff, an African American employee was given double the workload and harder labor jobs, while Caucasian employees were told they will have it easy.

13. Plaintiff reported the discrimination to her Manager, Carl, on two separate occasions, but nothing was ever done.

14. Plaintiff further was told that she could not have assistance with her workload, nor was Plaintiff allowed to take breaks, while Caucasian employees were allowed to. Plaintiff would get scolded by Jeff and Mr. Flynn if she did take a break or have someone else assist her with her workload. Plaintiff was intentionally given the slowest forklift to use, while also told to do extra work without help of breaks.

15. Matt, a Caucasian coworker, would attempt to assist Plaintiff, however, Mr. Flynn told him he couldn't help and made Matt go sit down, even though he had work to do.

16. Plaintiff reported the discrimination to Human Resources Manager, Kristin Andrews. Ms. Andrews had already moved her to another building. However, on or about June 29, 2022, Plaintiff was terminated for reports of racial discrimination.

17. Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff for reporting the discriminatory acts and failed to stop the discrimination, disparate treatment, and inappropriate behavior. Plaintiff's termination was pretextual in nature and not the true reason for letting the Plaintiff go.

18. It was the duty of Defendant, by and through its agents, servants and/or employees, to prevent such acts of racial discrimination, disparate treatment, and inappropriate behavior from occurring and to stop it once the behavior had been reported by the Plaintiff.

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Racial Discrimination - Title VII

19. The Plaintiff reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

20. Plaintiff is a member of a protected group on the basis of her race. Plaintiff was retaliated against and terminated based on her race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act.

21. Defendant was wanton, reckless, willful and intentional in the discrimination of the Plaintiff in the following particulars, to wit:

- a. In failing to continue to employ Plaintiff based on her race;
- b. In showing preferential treatment to Caucasian employees and detrimental treatment to Plaintiff; and
- c. In demonstrating a pattern of discriminatory treatment towards African American employees by making disparaging remarks and terminating those who were in a protected class.

22. In failing to protect the Plaintiff from racial discrimination or preferential treatment, the Defendant acted with malice or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights set out under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.) and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act.

23. The Defendant violated Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act by allowing the racial discrimination and preferential treatment to exist in the workplace.

24. The Plaintiff's race was a determining factor in the disparate treatment and wrongful discharge of the Plaintiff. But for the Plaintiff's race, she would not have been terminated.

25. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendant's discrimination on the basis of race, the Plaintiff has suffered a loss of wages, benefits, and employment opportunities.

26. The Defendant's discrimination against the Plaintiff has caused, continues to cause, and will cause the Plaintiff to suffer substantial damages for pecuniary losses, embarrassment, humiliation, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, and other nonpecuniary losses.

27. Due to the acts of the Defendant, its agents and employees, the Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief and/or civil damages, back wages, plus interest, payment for lost benefits, and reinstatement of benefits and front pay.

FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Retaliation – Title VII

28. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

29. As alleged above, Plaintiff complained to the Defendant on several occasions about racial discrimination.

30. That Plaintiff's complaints were made in good faith and constituted protected activity under Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.).

31. That shortly after making said complaints, the Defendant fired the Plaintiff, which is in violation of 42 U.S.C. §2000e-3.

32. The Defendant's stated reasons for retaliation and wrongful discharge were mere pretext for the retaliation against Plaintiff based on her engaging in protected activity.

33. The Plaintiff's reports of racial discrimination were determining factors in the retaliation and wrongful discharge of Plaintiff. But for Plaintiff's reports of racial discrimination, she would not have been terminated.

34. The Defendant was wanton, reckless and intentional in the retaliation against the Plaintiff for engaging in protected activity.

35. That the aforesaid conduct of Defendant, its agents and servants, violates United States laws against retaliatory dismissal and was, in fact, retaliatory in nature and was in violation of Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.).

36. In failing to protect the Plaintiff from retaliation, the Defendant acted with malice or reckless indifference to the federally protected rights set out under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.).

37. The Defendant violated Title VII of Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended (42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq.), and the Equal Employment Opportunity Act by allowing the retaliation to exist in the workplace.

38. That as a result of the above, Plaintiff has suffered damages in the form of lost back and future wages, income and benefits, expenses associated with finding other work, and has suffered severe psychological harm, emotional distress, anxiety, depression, inconvenience, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, embarrassment, humiliation, loss to professional standing, character and reputation, physical and personal injuries, and further seeks attorney's fees and costs and prejudgment interest.

39. That the Defendant's actions as set forth above were undertaken intentionally, willfully, wantonly, recklessly, maliciously and with utter disregard for the federally protected rights of the Plaintiff, and therefore Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages from the Defendant.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

40. Plaintiff reiterates and realleges each and every allegation as if fully set forth herein.

41. Due to the acts of the Defendant, Plaintiff suffered great emotional and mental distress, fright, revulsion, disgust, humiliation, embarrassment, shock and indignities, lost wages, loss of front pay, back pay and other work benefits.

42. That by reason of the wrongful acts of the Defendant, the Plaintiff has been damaged in such an amount to be determined by the trier of fact.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief:

1. Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against Defendant for all causes of actions in an amount which is fair, just and reasonable, and for compensatory damages;
2. Prejudgment interest, costs and attorney's fees as may be allowed by law;
3. Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against Defendant with back pay and associated benefits she would have earned with all lost or diminished benefits, such date to be determined by the trier of fact;
4. Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against Defendant for front pay and any other work benefits she lost in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact;
5. Judgment in favor of the Plaintiff and against Defendant for embarrassment and humiliation, and emotional distress in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact; and
6. Judgment against Defendant, in such an amount of actual damages, punitive damages, attorney's fees, costs of this action and any other relief this Honorable Court deems allowable under law, and just and proper.
